ABE FRANK'S CATASTROPHE.

Interest in the Maywood Stakes at Washington Park yesterday was measurably reduced by a peculiar mishap to Abe Frank that may possibly keep him out of racing for some time to come. While Dominick was attempting to pull up the heavy headed colt to a false break his mount pulled the reins suddenly out of his control by a quick movement of the head and Dominick was unseated. Abe Frank ran away almost three miles after that and finally jumped over a fence. This caused a long delay in the race, until he could be led from the track. This left the race a duel between Charles W. Meyer and Pentecost. It was thought by many shrewd turfmen that the Echorreclt would have an easy time, but a genuine surprise was in store for them, as Pentecost won easily at the end. They ran lapped to the last eighth, where Charles W. Meyer began to falter and Pentecost passed him handily, winning by three lengths.

In the Midway Stakes Pink Coat demonstrated that he was much the best. He was badly cut off at the club house turn but Caywood rated him along cleverly after that, getting up to the leaders at the stretch entry. He took the inside rail here and closing with a grand display of speed ran away from the other horses from the last eighth post home. Rolling Boer showed improvement and hung on longer than usual, outgaming Specific by a short length for second place. Specific showed the most speed for about seven furlongs but was in distress by the time the last furlong had been entered and had about as much as he could do to stall off Cambrion's bold bid at the end for third money. The race from a time standpoint was a good one, the mile and a furlong being negotiated in 1:52½. Pink Coat is in superb fettle now and will be a hard horse to beat from now on over a distance of ground.

Belle's Commoner, after a number of attempts to earn a bracket for himself, finally succeeded in doing so in the second race, a scramble for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs. Bullman avoided the early pace set by Blennenworth to the straightaway and then brought the colt up into a good position, passing along a close fifth at the last eighth. From there to the wire Bullman gave him an energetic ride, and he went to the front with a whirl, winning easily by two lengths from Rosewar, who barely got her nose in front of Eddie Busch for second place. The Echorreclt, as in his previous races, tired and quit when the crucial test came. Lord Quex's race all told was a good one, and he is probably due for a bracket soon.

The last race of the day went to Rome Respass' good mare Winter, who finished fast and vigorously, beating Chorus Boy a length. Vincennes was an indifferent third. Chorus Boy is good now and should win the first time mud prevails if placed right. Barbara M. is also on the improving list, being close up to the final furlong.

The racing was the best of the week and the greatest crowd since last Saturday was out. There were no close finishes to excite enthusiasm, but the card was high class throughout and was thoroughly enjoyed.

After Abe Frank ran away there was a hurried effort to "get out," and odds were 2 to 5 against Charles W. Meyer, 3 to 5 Pentecost and 20 to 1 Abe Frank.

H. T. Griffin has sold the two-year-old Wild Oats to M. H. Ticheor and he was shipped from New York for Chicago last night. Griffin has also sold Denman Thompson to F. C. Moshier.

The card for this afternoon is a good one, the six purses having each secured an exceedingly good entry.

THE SOCIAL SIDE OF RACING.

The most marked change in the English turf is on the social side, a change indicated by the increased attendance of ladies. In a thoughtful review of the question, London Field says:

That ladies have assisted at races in the past, and even taken actual part in them on rare occasions, the history of the turf informs us. The presence of gaily dressed ladies at Ascot and Goodwood affords a spectacle of no novelty whatever, but Ascot and Goodwood are social functions of high order and reputation. At Newmarket, where racing pure and simple is the programme, and where no string band charms the ear or delicacy laden table panders to the palate, the feminine spectator was not such a great while since a scarce phenomenon, to be counted on the fingers. This was in the days previous to the erection of the stand, a comparatively modern affair, and in the absence of any such shelter it was, on by no means rare occasions, no light thing to face the elements. Newmarket has always been the slowest to adopt measures that tend to the greater convenience of visitors, perhaps by way of gentle reminder that "The play's the thing," and that if good racing is provided on the finest of all race courses, people should be perfectly satisfied. The present season is the first in which provision has been made in the reserved (Tattersall's) for ladies in the shape of special seating accommodation. Previously the bare boards, covered with the dust from the soles of thousands of boots, was all there was to sit upon. Newmarket could no doubt subsist very comfortably without the handful of ladies who frequent Tattersall's, and the incident is, therefore, noticeable as evidence of the mysterious force which compels all of us to march with the times. We are here dealing with facts and not with the pointing of morals, and we have no intention of discussing how far the turf is helped by the very large attendance of ladies that is customary. That the earning of dividends is materially assisted cannot be doubted, or we should not see astute men of business like our clerks of the course going to the lengths they do, stands at the most up-to-date meetings being provided with glass-sided drawing rooms that, at the proper season of the year, would not be miscalled by the name of summer gardens. The earning of dividends is the key to the situation, and where the community to be attracted is one accustomed to some social refinement in its home the surest way of attracting it is to provide comfort. It has been discovered that by this means is a goodly membership to be secured, for, when ladies learn that charming rooms and flower-bedecked lawns are placed at their disposal, for practically nothing—the male membership including a couple of ladies' passes as a rule—small wonder is it that husbands are enjoined by the family powers to enroll their names.

Here in America the most successful courses are those favored by refined women. When racing was in its glory in South Carolina the social queens of the slaveholding states gathered in Charleston and lent charm to the meetings at the famous Washington course. After the Civil War, when steps were taken to revive racing in the North, Dr. John B. Irving, the ex-secretary of the South Carolina Jockey Club, was sent for and elected secretary of the American Jockey Club, to carry out the ideas which had given social prestige to the turf at Charleston. The club house on the bluff at Jerome Park was made exclusive, and the bright spirits of fashionable drawing-rooms manifested an eagerness to go there. Had it not been for *Substituted starters. Winner—Ch. c. by Oddfellow—Henneria. Went to post at 2:30. At post 15 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Cervera broke well in motion and easily went to the front and was lucky and perfectly handled. Tom Kenny was on the extreme outside, compelling him to run wide on the turn. He closed a big gap from a bad start, might have won with an even break and ran a very good race. Twig made up considerable ground and finished fast. Captain January and The Black Scot both ran in greatly improved form and are worth remembering. Choir Master and Bobs got off badly and were repeatedly shut off and interfered with. The first named was easing up in the last sixteenth.

Scratched—25922 Brahmin, 118; 26549 Jack McGinn, 110; 22484 Schoolmaster, 110; 26236 Ristrick, 110; Hops, 107; 21088 Labor, 107.

Overweights—Tom Kenny, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. f. by Kismet—Joiza. Went to post at 3:20. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second easily. Fatalist, lucky and perfectly handled, ran a fine, game race and is steadily improving. Animosity was best, but was shut off at the start and lost ground at both turns and was swerving all over the track in the stretch. Marothien was well placed throughout and had no mischances. Annie Thompson showed the most early speed and hung on longer than usual. She is about due. Pleasant Sail was conceding too much weight at the distance. Spry and Ashes had no chance at the distance and with their bad jockeys.

Scratched—26466 Nanine, 96; 26466 Jils Greenwood, 89.

Overweights—Flara, 3 pounds.

Fatalist, show, 3 to 5. Animosity, show, 1 to 2. Marothien, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Meddler—Annot Lyle. Went to post at 3:45. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Cameron ran under a stout pull to the stretch, where Gay Boy closed up on a surferance, but when called on the winner ran away from the others easily. Brixton finished strongly, wearing down Gay Boy's lead in the last furlong. The latter tired after his early effort to beat Cameron and was easily second best. Carroll D. showed plenty of speed to the stretch.

Scratched—26340 Five Nations, 117; 26579 April Shower, 112.

Cameron, show, out. Brixton, show, 1 to 3. Gay Boy, show, out.

26668 FOURTH RACE—1 1-4 Miles. 3-year-olds. Allowances.

Winner—Blk. c. by Watercress—Sabrina. Went to post at 4:15. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Water Color led under a choking pull throughout. He has a tremendous long, sweeping stride and appeared when on the backstretch like a giant among pigmies, so great was the contrast. It is the general opinion among horsemen that he is now capable of giving Commando a good argument. Vitellus, well up throughout, finished very gamely and put up a remarkably good race. Mortallo ran like a pronounced stayer. He was under pressure almost from the start and hung on and kept coming with bulldog tenacity. All Green evidently found the track too hard, was always outrun and was hopelessly beaten in the first half mile. Handwork, set the severe task of following the pacemaker too closely, had little left at the finish, but can do better.

Corrected weights—Water Color, 129.

Water Color, show, out. Vitellus, show, evens. Mortallo, show, evens. All Green, show, 1 to 3.

THE SOCIAL SIDE OF RACING.

The encouraging smile of refined woman, the success of the meetings of the American Jockey Club would not have been so immediate and pronounced. When Col. M. Lewis Clark re-established racing at Louisville he sought for and obtained the support of the fair women of the Blue Grass State, and the founders of Washington Park at Chicago bowed to the dictates of a similar policy. The trotting and running clubs which provide at their tracks the best accommodations for ladies, furnishing good music and preserving within fixed enclosures an atmosphere of refinement, are the ones which pay their shareholders the largest dividends. The development of the social side of racing is a good thing for the horse and his breeder.—Turf, Field and Farm.

25c HANDICAP 25c

Were our specials yesterday.

Sidney Lucas, Anna Bain, Egyptian Prince, are samples of what we gave in the past four days. We do no guessing. Best of information and handicapping.

Winner—Ch. c. by Bramble—Maid of Balgown.

Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Prince of Melbourne seemed a certain winner almost throughout, even with The Amazon settling a fast pace in the first half. He and Wax Taper moved up simultaneously on the backstretch with the result that the Beard colt left the other two struggling far behind with Wax Taper having considerable difficulty in shaking off the mare. The winner ran like the great stake horse of last year and was easily best. Rice's horse was set an impossible task at the weights and was by no means disgraced.

Scratched—26638 Kamara, 113; 26386 Tinge, 106; 26271 Belle of Troy, 101.

No show betting.

26670 SIXTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. $600 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 24%, 48%, 1:14%, 1:42%, 1:42%.

Winner—Ch. c. by Rayon d'Or—Lady Margaret.

Went to post at 5:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Magnificent outclassed the field on purely a speed basis, with none to carry him along fast in the first part of the race. He was a willing horse, although inclined to quit right at the end. Tinge was overhauling him in the last furlong. Barbetto, outrun from the start and outclassed, was an easy third. Fairy Tale made up some ground in the last half.

Scratched—26666 Animosity, 89.

Overweights—Ginki, 2 pounds.

No show betting on first three.

Winner—Ch. g. by Iroquois—Great Annie.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start excellent. Won easily; second the same. Tammany Chief was well ridden, closed strongly in the last eighth on the inside rail and won drawing away. Andes ran well, but hung slightly in the closing strides. Light Ball had enough after seven furlongs had been run. Engurst ran a good race, but had no chance from where he got off. Miss Soak had enough after the six furlongs post had been reached. The others were never contenders. It was rather a poor field.

Overweights—Alee, 21 pounds.

Tammany Chief, show, evens. Andes, show, 4 to 5. Light Ball, show, 2 to 1. Engurst, show, 1 to 2. Miss Soak, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by The Commoner—Battle Belle.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start excellent. Won easily; next three driving. Belle's Commoner came with an irresistible rush at the end and won as his rider pleased. Rosewar showed speed but was tiring in the last sixteenth and just lasted long enough to beat Eddie Busch a head on the post for second place. The latter finished stoutly. Blennenworth hung in the closing strides. Lord Quex ran a fair race all told. The others were never in the hunt.

Scratched—Huzzah, 103; 26541 Autumn Leaves, 104.

Winner—B. c. by Hastings—Taratella.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 20 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. The two ran as a team to the last eighth, where Charles W. Meyer tired and Pentecost had no trouble thereafter. Dominick fell off ABE Frank in the first breakaway and the great colt ran away two and a half miles at full speed, finally jumping over a fence at the first quarter post. He was probably irretrievably injured. The low delay at the post was caused by waiting for him to be taken off the course.

Winner—B. h. by Leonatus—Alice Brand.

Went to post at 4:15. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Pink Coat was much the best. He was badly pocketed at the club house turn, but got out through the natural spread when going down the backstretch. After that he gradually improved his position and taking the inside rail at the stretch entry was soon on equal terms with the leaders. From the eighth post home he fairly romped away from his field. Rolling Boer ran well and held on longer than usual, outgaming Specific for second place. The latter tired perceptibly in the last sixteenth. Cambrian appeared to have a chance just after entering the stretch, but faltered when about the eighth post. W. J. Deboe showed speed for six furlongs and then quit.

Scratched—(26571) Mr. Brown, 106.

Overweights—Pink Coat, 1 pound; Specific, 1 1/2.

Seide ran lapped on Money Muss to the last eighth, where he shook the Wood gelding off and assumed the lead and held it to the end. Triaditza finished strongly, but was not good enough today to beat the winner. King Dellis ran about at an even clip throughout and finished well. Money Muss quit all over in the final eighth. Winner—B. m. by Exile—Wildflower.

Went to post at 5:25. At post 30 seconds. Start good. Won handily after a drive; second easily. Winter moved up gradually from fifth position at the half and closed on the leaders from there to the last eighth, where she got clear of her field and won with a little to spare. Chorus Boy ran well and finished with a rush. He is better in soft going and should earn a bracket soon when mud prevails. Vincennes finished strongly, beating St. Wood on the post for third money. Barbara M. showed great improvement and was right there for seven furlongs. Fleuron quit badly a furlong out. Astor has apparently trained off.
